After taking his physical examination on December 31, 1942, subject was drafted into the military forces. On January 7, 1943 the subject went AWOL. He was AWOL for seven days when his wife called the authorities at Camp Dix and upon talking to them the subject returned to the camp. Subject was later transferred to Florida where he wrote his wife stating that he had been running around with another woman and was in a family way and desired a divorce. Victim, JOSEPHINE, refused a divorce. Subject was later transferred to Sheppard Field, Texas. Victim, JOSEPHINE, advised that her husband asked for a divorce two months after they were married and again about two months after he went into the Army. Victim, JOSEPHINE, has not seen subject since he actually entered the service. About two months ago JOSEPHINE wrote and stated that he could give a divorce and received a reply from him that he had no grounds. JOSEPHINE claims that in order to give him grounds, she wrote that she had been going out with other men although she maintains that this is not the case. She claims to have seen an attorney regarding the divorce. The father of victims, JOSEPH PETER MUTO, 200 Verona Avenue, Newark, N.J., was quite upset about the whole affair since he had received a letter from the subject on the same day which the victim received the extortion note. In the letter to the father the subject mentioned his return to Newark on July 4 and also mentioned that no matter what happened when he came home, he still loved JOSEPHINE.

The victims had previously reported to the local police but were advised that they could do nothing at that time. During the interview at the office, victim, BLANCHE, twin sister of victim, JOSEPHINE, seemed to be the one who did most of the talking and gave the impression of one interesting herself in other people's affairs. Both victims are employed by the Brewster Aeronautical Corporation, Newark, New Jersey. JOSEPHINE'S check No. 14763. Blanche's check No. 10566.

U. S. Attorney Charles A. Stenziale was contacted, but as there appeared to be a family aspect to it, prosecution was declined at this time.
